Adventures of Sparky: The Pirate Wore Wooden Shoes (Volume 3) Ira Levofsky

Shortly after accepting a new mission agent Sparky, armed and dangerous, begins his crossing of the Atlantic Ocean. Thrills, chills international espionage and a seemingly never ending culinary experience with Mom's famous goat stew recipe, await to occupy Sparky at the least opportune moments. Facing danger at every turn Sparky locates his sanctuary, the red light district, and there he blends in seamlessly like only he can. Many lives hang in the balance as Sparky's mission winds through the maze of strippers, thugs and people with generally bad intent. And while struggling to manage the exchange rate and his expense account at the same time, Sparky makes the most of every opportunity. This third adventure is absolutely the most important to date as the very lives of countless others hang in the balance. Join Sparky and find out why The Pirate Wore Wooden Shoes.
