Going Up: New and Selected Poems E. A. Appel

In Going Up, Appel writes with clarity, originality and wit to navigate between the natural world and the absurdity of trying to find meaning in our everyday lives. This brief collection includes poems about the gulf of relationships, daily routine, running away from suburbia, birds, yearning for babies, ageing, witnessing death, mortality, 911 and how to live with the departed. This is not a lofty academic tome. The poet's voice is authentic, her words earned.
