When Liz Frier's fiancé leaves her for the wedding planner just two months before their wedding she has more than a few pieces to pick up. When she decides that the best place to pick up those pieces is in Bordeaux, France, her best friend, Lauren, tries to change her mind. The one thing that everyone knows about Liz Frier, however, is that once she has made up her mind, there is no changing it.

Liz soon finds herself immersed in the French culture she never dreamed she would get the chance to see and even making friends. One friend in particular shows Liz that there is much more to her life than the pieces of what once was and he does everything imaginable to make her stay.

Will Liz's new friend convince her that there is a better life for her in France? Or will she return to the shattered remnants of what once was back in New York City? Join Liz in her own journey as she experiences a life she never knew existed and is faced with the decision of a lifetime.
