THIS IS A STANDALONE CLEAN CHRISTIAN HISTORICAL ROMANCE!

1883

Barren Springs, Texas

Sheriff Scott Chambers has had the love of a lifetime. His first wife battled cholera and left him much too soon, and as a result he is a shell of the man he used to be. His sister, Kittie, takes matters into her own hands to find Scott a new bride. She decides the best way to set thing in motion and get him the woman he needs it to write an ad for him in the Matrimonial News, which is exactly what she does.

Many miles away, Minnie has been overworked as a farmhand ever since her brothers left for the war. The fact that they have never returned makes life even harder as he father seems to almost take their passing out on her with his constant cruelty. Unable to take it anymore, she decides to answer the ad. When she runs away from the only home she has ever known wearing her brother's hand me down clothes, she runs the highest risks – but she can't stay any longer. Penniless, alone and on the road, she appears to be easy prey for an outlaw who happily comes across her. Will this encounter spell her end at his filthy hands? Or will she be able to somehow overcome and make it to her destination? And even if she gets there, what will she think of Scott, and what will he think of her? Read on and find out...
