Hearing From Jenny Alice Louise Barr

When my daughter died unexpectedly at age 28 I felt shock, grief and disbelief. Thinking life could not be happy again and I would never get over my loss, I sank into depression. Then I began hearing from Jenny. She showed me, in many different ways that she was still here, in another dimension. She went to great lengths to reach me and show me that she was not really dead. Only our bodies die, our souls continue on and can guide and comfort us. Our deceased loved ones do not want us to grieve over them forever, to stop living and let the loss destroy us. They want us to remember them but to heal and go on with our lives and most of all, to be happy. They can and will help us if we are open to hearing from them. I traveled the long, dark journey of grief. I learned, with my daughter's help from the other side, that we can be happy again. I will never stop missing Jenny and wishing she could have stayed on this earth, but I now have a different kind of relationship with her. I know she is here watching over and helping me. I look forward to the day when my journey here will end and we will be together again.
