Over the past few years I have read a lot of self-help books . All these books claim a lot of success: people were cured from cancer, people didn't need kidney operations, and people's broken bones were healed. But none of these books gave me the feeling 'that's it'. Why was that? The testimonials in all these books were superb. So why were these books not appealing to me and why was I looking further? To find what? When I looked back I concluded that what struck me most was the books' lack of a timeless universal system of how 'healing' works. The turning point for me was when I learned about a special problem-solving process called Ho'oponopono. This eBook gives readers more than a brief introduction to the world of Ho'oponopono. But reading this eBook without practicing is not enough. Therefore I strongly recommend using the easy to use tools mentioned in the book to experience the results for yourself. As far as I know, this eBook is the shortest introduction to everything you want to know in life. After reading and applying your life will never be the same again.
