THROUGH COUNTLESS GUYS AND THE MIND-BENDING '60S, FINDING "HIM" WAS STARTING TO LOOK IMPOSSIBLE Coming of age in the early 1960s Julie Taylor and her best friends were crazy about boys -- that's all they ever thought about. When news of The Beatles came crashing into their little suburban world, it was like a miracle -- an unexpected bonus in their ordinary lives. It was a very exciting time in history. Without missing a beat, in their new white go-go boots, they enthusiastically danced their way into the British invasion and soon became addicted to the exciting, psychedelic '60s and all its accoutrements. In her search for a soul mate Julie candidly shares all her experiences with you -- first during high school when she realizes she wants to play "this sex game" on her terms -- then later as she embraces the new rock and roll era of free love, groovy fashions, and recreational drugs. Inspired by a true story, chapter-by-chapter she tells you all her juicy stories on her quest for true love.
