Blessings: A Multilingual Presentation (Performance) John Paul II

With generous spirit and a profound sense of hope, Pope John Paul II always spoke to the people of the world in their own language and in a very personal way. In this special recording of his celebration of the Roman Catholic Holy Eucharist and various other liturgical selections, John Paul gives access to a spiritual and theological tradition that is centuries old.

These multilingual recordings by the Holy Father convey his dignity and passion, and most of all his love for the world. His prayers and scriptural readings are truly a treasure and an inspiration to all.
