This book consists of Diablo 3 games background story chief source, hand-painted game characters and scene pictures. The illustrated book contains a large number of game characters, scenes, and hand-painted manuscripts of the plots. When reading this book, you may feel as if you place yourself in the game. The illustrated book tells the wonderful story which begins with the letter which a person with the mage descent wrote to his niece, describing the process of the birth of the universe in the dark world, the battles between demons and angels, and humans fighting with the demons in order to guard their homes. When the angels constantly fight with demons for the stone of the world the stone of creation, a small portion of the devils are reluctant to see the war go on, they secretly steal the stone of the world. However, the angels fall in love with the demons. They have created a sanctuary not to be found with the stone of the world. And their descendants are later human beings. But the loss of the stone of the world is eventually discovered by the Prince of the Devils. They finally find the human sanctuary and begin to kill the human beings cruelly. The human world have embarked on the journey to fight with the Prince of the Devils in order to guard their homes. Eventually the Prince of the Devils is put down under the magic stone by the brave people of mankind.
