Strike Out (Texas Titans, Book 1) Cheryl Douglas

When professional baseball player, Zach Foster, agreed to go into business with five of his best friends, he didn't expect their little sports bar to evolve into a national chain, spanning fifty states, but it did. The business helps to fill the void in Zach's life during the off-season, but when he closes his eyes at night, he still can't forget the girl who left that gaping hole in his heart when she left him standing at the altar. Lauren 'Rennie' Alexander would do anything to fulfill a sick child's wish. Not only is it her job, as director of the Sky's the Limit Foundation, but it's her passion. So when her assistant brings her a letter scribbled in crayon, complete with an application from the little boy's loving parents, Rennie is ready to make another dream come true. Until she realizes that sick little boy's dream is her worst nightmare. He wants to meet his hero, baseball player, Zach Foster. The same lying jerk who broke Rennie's heart. It's seems she has no choice but to take one for the team.
