Vegan Christmas Cookies

When the weather outside is frightful... bake cookies!.

Even though you've decided to stop eating all forms of animal products, that doesn't mean you can't enjoy soft, flaky, and incredibly flavorful vegan cookies. Many vegans worry that the egg-free and milk-free versions of their favorite cookies will sink or become hard as rocks, but I have the secrets to amazing cookie recipes.

The holiday season is one of the best times of the year to bake- there's nothing like coming inside on a cold night and having the smell of freshly baked cookies greet you at the door.

Baking cookies is one of my favorite memories from childhood. My mom had us helping in the kitchen basically since we were born, and I loved helping to add green and red sprinkles and decorating gingerbread reindeer.

Never again do you need to worry about scrounging the internet looking for vegan recipes that really work for your favorite cookies. All your favorite Christmas cookies are now veganized, tested, and delicious enough to present at holiday parties, cookie swaps, and most importantly, to Santa. Your friends will be impressed at how a cookie made without any cholesterol could possibly taste so good.
