Sylvie Tanner never had the example of true love in childhood. She knew first-hand how destructive a relationship could be to a family, having witnessed her mother go from one bad man to another. When she suddenly finds herself all alone, she is left with no choice but to do whatever it takes to survive, even becoming a mail order bride. Unfortunately, she is not a Christian, and her only choice is to marry a Christian man.

Nolan Kenner places an advertisement in the Marriage Gazette expecting to meet and marry a Christian woman. Sylvie Tanner most closely matches the qualities that he desires for a wife. He is thrilled when she accepts his proposal. Their marriage seems to be everything he ever wanted.

This is a story of the love of a man and a woman, and their spiritual journey together. Can they find happiness in a relationship that is built upon a lie?

A sweet, historical Christian mail order bride story.
