Man: Transforming our families, our communities, and our world Cedric D Dukes

What makes a man tick? What makes him act out of character? Is it him, his surroundings, or was he born with the short end of the stick? In some cases – in our attitudes, traits, and character – we, men, are not living up to our purpose. When a man understands his purpose and walks in it, he impacts his family, community, and world. This only happens when a man has a transformed heart and mind. A transformed man demonstrates love and respects toward others. A transformed man uses his ability, talents and strengths to provide for his family. A transformed man becomes accountable for his actions. Finally, a transformed man leaves a legacy to his family, community and world.
