Mending hearts and building dreams...

It's easy for Sammi Carnevale to talk herself out of having real feelings for Cillian Ronan, but with one simple, sweet gesture, he wins not only her heart, but her trust, too. She can't deny her feelings for him, and certainly not her desire. And with every step they make together, Sammi's wounds begin to mend. And now, with true happiness in her life, she decides to tackle her dreams of dancing again head-on.

But trust is so easily broken...

Cillian is ready to prove to Sammi that he can be everything she's ever needed and wanted in a man. In return, she makes him feel like he can do anything, like winning the MMA tournament, taking back his father's business, and even forgiving himself for the guilt he carries over his friend's suicide. Inviting her for a weekend away with him at the tournament is a turning point for them both—until Sammi's past catches up with her in the most unexpected and terrible way.

When she flees, she takes with her everything Cillian's worked so hard for—the motivation to win the tournament, and to get his father's gym back. His heart goes with her, too, ripped out of his chest with her departure. Can Cillian convince himself he's worthy and deserving of Sammi? Will Sammi embrace the love she never thought she'd have, or will she succumb to the pain of her nightmare and push Cillian away for good?
