The Circle: Freelancing with Freud (Volume 1) X. W. Kavanagh

Freelancing with Freud introduces Will Kavanagh, the unassuming product of Louisiana's Cajun country, who succeeds in escaping his roots and launches into the world beyond. A talented but vulnerable seeker, Will experiences good fortune early in his life, not the least of which is meeting the intriguing and mysterious Dominique, who happily takes him on as her lover-in-training. Things then become incredibly fulfilling and tragically real, as they are soon banished from one another's lives. Unbelievably, the adventure has just begun for Will, as he buttresses his resolve and forges ahead to the allure of Asia and the far away respite from his troubles. Landing feet-first into his own version of the sexual revolution, Will embraces the wonderful world until meaning and paranoia replace the calm veneer and thrust him into the fight of his life. With his luck seemingly running out, he has to roll the dice one frightening time and watches with near terror to see which way the Gods cast his fate. Little does he suspect that this is just the beginning. Freelancing with Freud is a sexy, military-inspired legal thriller wrapped around an X-rated love story that will keep you captivated until the final penultimate adrenaline ride. Exposed early on to the scent of adventure, Will Kavanagh takes advantage of every opportunity to fulfill his intractable pursuit of love and intrigue. When destiny steps in front of him, he takes that irreversible leap into the vagaries of the universe and his life is never the same again. And that's almost the way he wants it until an innocuous dinner conversation forces him to roll the dice in the military justice equivalent of Russian roulette. Where does faith and loyalty get overtaken by chicanery, deception and survival? Take the ride Will took and find out what he did—eighty percent odds of success represent one round in the cylinder of the revolver. How lucky are you?
