The Evolution of Hillary Rodham Clinton (Squint) Sonya Huber

Who is Hillary Clinton, beyond the right-wing smear campaign and the reputation of her husband? Sonya Huber's short, accessible book takes a balanced look at Hillary, delving into the evolution of her image, her detractors and their attacks, and her policy decisions, offering an overview of the forces that have shaped her. From her role as Secretary of State to her commitment to women's rights, her changing positions and charges of unreliability on issues of trade and the environment, Hillary Rodham Clinton's political agenda has changed over time. Do these changes make her a reptilian "shape-shifter" or just a politician? Will she be responsive to a changing Democratic Party in America, and how will she govern as President of the United States?
