Up Your Game . . . in Basketball and in Life.

The game of basketball--and the game of life--demand physical and mental fitness. To succeed you need determination, dedication and training. That's where this book comes in.

Go Prove Something! A Basketball Player's Guide to Legally Using PEDs is a step-by-step guide for building your life from the ground up. It's for school-age kids, teens, and children of all ages who love the game and want to become better players and better people. Not just another book of basketball drills, Go Prove Something! instead offers exercises that prepare your mind for success on and off the court.

You've heard about the kind of PEDs--Performance Enhancing Drugs--that get athletes into all sorts of trouble. The PEDs in this book are entirely different. They're more powerful. They're free. They're safe. And they're perfectly legal.

And once you put them into effect they'll take your life--and your basketball game--to new heights.
