Claire Vincent and Shawn Sullivan fell deeply in love in college and planned to spend their lives together pursuing acting in Hollywood. But just after graduation, Claire opts to stay behind in their small Florida hometown, abandoning Shawn and their dream without explanation. She vows to put the handsome troublemaker out of her mind and her life and settles into a more sedate existence as a drama teacher and community theater director. When Shawn, now a dashing movie star, comes home to see Claire direct his younger sister in a community theater production, he's determined to discover once and for all the secret that drove them apart.
