THESE STORIES have been written by those who lived or vacationed on the shores of a lovely little lake in west Orange County, Florida. The sentimental attachment each of us has for Lake Lucy may be remarkable. The stories have been collected and edited by Peggy Sias Lantz, the granddaughter of the first family to build a house there. David Purdy Sias and Wilhelmine Hogg Sias (called Billie) brought their three children to live here on New Year's Day, 1914.
