Jenny 4 Paul Drew

This novel is told from the viewpoint of draftee Nick Calloway, who discovers basic human goodness amid the horrors, the obscenities of war. During a rescue mission, Nick's patrol encounters an enigmatic man and his grandson, who Nick suspects are Viet Cong sympathizers. The one man who can discern the truth is the patrol's Vietnamese interpreter, a pacifist who knew Ho Chi Minh. Author Paul Drew has called upon his experience as a combat infantry squad leader during major operations and countless day patrols and night ambushes, to provide vivid descriptions of the sights and sounds of battle. He sounds a clarion call for peace.
