Seed of Life (Bewitch the Witch Book 1) D.E.P.

Note to reader: I am very happy to get lots of interest on this novel. This book has blown through the charts in certain genres. However, I am also embarrassed because this piece is not what portrays me as a writer. While I edited it 2 years ago, I was blind to small grammar mistakes, poor word usage, and poor organization. I am happy to say that I will republish with new edits along with the second book by the end of this year 2015. Thank you very much for your support and feedback.

Is it destiny that triggers the evil in all hearts? The Vines of Fatum reveal an unfortunate destiny for the inhabitants of the land. The first known twins are born in the land, leaving their mother to have her soul depend on the life of a withering rose. Fortis, the king, has no option but to seek help from the Ape in the high mountains. Through the sky he sails along with two trusted warriors and a vampire assassin. Yet, the journey turns to be one of dread as their ship is demolished. Through the Forbidden Forest, they must venture to unravel the secrets preying upon the land where many a monster dwells. Fortis, Invicta, Sicarius, and Magni take a different path to uncover what once was and what shall be. The destiny lies within their hands, for the Vines of Fatum always gives hope.
