The Intercessor: Spirit of Prayer Adrienne Moore

The bible declares, without knowledge, the people perish. God wants us to enter into spiritual warfare knowing how to fight through intercession. “Blessed be the LORD my strength, which teacheth my hands to war and my fingers to fight” (Psalm 144:1). Our “hands” is symbolic of our prayer language and the Holy Spirit will help us fight. Fighting takes place on our knees. Prayer keeps us humble, holy, obedient, submissive, discerning, and gives us spiritual power and access to the throne room. Prayerfully, your eyes will be opened to the call to prayer at this hour. There is a drought in intercession but the remnant is upon the tower daily, watching to see what the LORD will say them (Habakkuk 2:1-2) An intercessor is given to a lifestyle of prayer is aware of the strategic prayer times. The mature believer understands strategy in the prayer. This book breaks down the warfare, qualifications, burden, rewards, and your prayer life. Our prayer must have an assignment. When we pray corporately or individually discipline that accompany being a watchman upon the tower of prayer. Furthermore, it will challenge and strengthen our prayer must be on a mission.
