The Life and Mission of Jesus Christ Sun Myung Moon

For the first time in print, a collection of Reverend Sun Myung Moon's expositions on the life and mission of Jesus Christ. Throughout his life, Rev. Moon has gone beyond a simple belief in Jesus and has desired to comfort him with tears, tears that welled up with grief from deeply understanding Jesus' inner situation and heart.

In some areas, such as the stories of Jesus' miracles, Rev. Moon has said little. In other areas, such as Jesus' birth, his self-disclosure as bridegroom, his relationship with his family, his relation to John the Baptist, his ethical teachings and his agony in the Garden of Gethsemane, Rev. Moon has talked a great deal.

Filled with compassionate and unique insights into the heart and character of Jesus Christ, this book is sure to bring the reader into a deeper relationship with him. "I did not come to tell you what you already know," Rev. Moon has said, "but to give a new revelation from God."
