Officer Randi Hartwell doesn't always play by the rules when it comes to the law—or women. Committing herself to a job she hates is a sacrifice she owes her brother. After all, she cost him his life. But when Randi pulls over Jule Chapin for a traffic stop, Jule stirs up feelings that challenge those beliefs.

Eight months ago, Jule's girlfriend died of a sudden heart attack at age thirty-two. Now Jule is on a mission to avoid the same fate by drastically changing her lifestyle. In her desire to find meaning in her own life, falling for a reckless cop doesn't fit into her plans at all.

The two are drawn to each other for reasons they can't explain. When the stress of police work threatens to push Randi over the edge, they discover that life and death decisions are more complicated than they thought.
