Environmental Health Procedures (Clay's Library of Health and the Environment) W.H. Bassett

This is an essential reference source, providing an accessible entry into enforcement procedures for the complex body of UK environmental health law. The main legal procedures used in the environmental health field are presented as flow charts supported by explanatory text.

All chapters are updated to reflect new legislation and statutory guidance including:

- food safety – details of the new procedures now in place following both EC and UK legislation implemented in 2006
- housing standards - new standards and processes for securing acceptable housing following the radical changes brought by the Housing Act 2004
- Clean Neighbourhoods and Environment Act 2005
- Licensing Act 2003.

Covering all you need to know, environmental health officers and students will find this essential reading. It will also be a valuable reference for everyone whose responsibilities demand they keep abreast of current environmental health practices.
