The Reunion Part 1: Revelations (Volume 1) Mark Brown

How well do we truly know the ones we love? Two months after Levi Fischer's wife, Brie, dies of mysterious and unknown causes, and after a break-in occurs at his house by two men who were obviously looking for Brie's missing laptop, Levi begins to realize he didn't know her as well as he had thought. After the two men beat him half to death in their escape, he decides to take a week off from his work, and attend his twenty-year high school reunion, where he immediately runs into Shiloh Coltrane, a ravishing green-eyed strawberry-blond he had a crush on in high school. He would soon learn, however, that she too has her secrets. Quickly falling in love, and between the sheets, Shiloh teams up with Levi to try and find this missing laptop while trying to stay one step ahead of men who are willing to kill and die for what they soon find out is part of a software program Predicting the future of earth and mankind, with two remaining and still missing pieces. The Reunion Part I: Revelations is a sizzling hot, steamy suspense thriller that will sure to become one of this year's guilty pleasures, and keep you on the edge of your seat.
