The Unwanted Bride for the Stubborn Cowboy

Sixteen-year-old Jessie is desperate. Her father's new wife hates her, and makes every day at home miserable for her. Jessie has been taking care of her little brother ever since her mother died, but she knows she has to find a new life for herself—even if it means leaving her old one behind.

Deciding to take a chance out West as a Mail Order Bride, Jessie answers an ad in the Matrimonial times. A kind man named Martin responds, and unable to wait any longer, Jessie travels to his farm on her own, only to find that he has changed his mind, and doesn't want her anymore!

But Jessie is determined to make a new life, and with courage and faith in God, she will prove to Martin that she is the wife for him—one way or another! ...

A Hesitant Bride for the Older Horseman

Restless and ready for a new life, Fiona answers an ad for a Mail Order Bride. Many of her friends have already married husbands out West, and she wants a chance for love and romance, too. But while she has been dreaming of a young and handsome husband, the man who meets her at the station is older than she expected.

James is a kind and brave man, but after losing his young family years ago, he is not sure if he can love again. He has decided to take a chance again, even though it seems that Fiona is ready to back out of the deal.

But God has other plans for the couple, and these two lost hearts find love together at last. A love that becomes at risk when James is shot, and then tested further when a vicious rumor threatens to end their life together, forever...

A Fugitive Bride for the Cowboy

Wealthy and pampered Victoria Corrington never expected to be headed West as a mail order bride, but that was before she found herself accused of a murder she didn't commit. Now on the run from both an angry ex-beau and her abusive father, she has fled to marry a man whom she has never met—and who is also expecting an entirely different woman!

Eric McLeod lost his wife some time ago, but he never lost his faith in God. Father to young, twin daughters, he is in need of a wife and mother. He trusts in God's plan for him—and his family—and as Veronica's secrets begin to unravel, it is Eric's love and her new found strength that could help lead her heart to love...
