V.I.P. is a re-release of the paperback version - "Double Platinum."

"Lies, lies, and more lies. I'm tired of it," I said.

"Calm down. First things first. I need to make some phone calls and get you back in the studio."

At that point I didn't hear anything else Carmen was saying. I was thinking about how my career was over. How had I let it get this bad? My mama warned me that my diva like attitude would cost me?

Was it too late for me to make a comeback?

When fans of R & B Diva Parris start dissing her online, Parris knows she has to do something to revive her declining music career. She needs a hit song and fast. CJ "The Hitmaker" is a super producer looking to expand his portfolio. When these two meet, sparks fly, but trouble awaits between the pages. Being V.I.P. comes with a whole lot of drama from groupies and people from their past. Will Parris and CJ be able to mix business with pleasure without getting caught up in a media frenzy? Find out in V.I.P.
