What does the Tennessee Bell-Witch Ghost, a team of Hawaiians trapped on an elevator, a head-strong army soldier, a whack-job driver and a dog all have in common?

ABSOLUTELY NOTHING!

But they sure make for good reading.

This collection of short stories, written with a man in mind, contains several horror/ghost stories, some off-kilter viewpoints, and a few comedies thrown in for good measure. If you're wanting to expose your man to culture, well, this ain't the book for you.
