Do you have a dream of owning your own successful business and being your own boss? Let me show you how to start and run your own successful residential home cleaning business from scratch in five easy steps. Get started today! Learn how to earn up to $50.00 per hour cleaning homes. No kidding! I've started my own cleaning business from scratch and helped four other people do the same.

Whether you live in a small town or a big city, people will always need help cleaning their homes. In fact, the most lucrative business I set up was in Peachland, BC population 5000.

Why start a cleaning business? Simple. Time is at a premium in today's busy world. People simply do not have time to clean or maintain their homes. Having a home cleaner is no longer considered a luxury. It's a necessity; a growing need that can only be expected to increase dramatically in the coming years. You don't need a degree to start your own home cleaning business. Almost anyone can clean!

Eight years ago I was a mid level manager at a credit union and making close to $50,000.00 a year, but I wasn't happy. Nearing age fifty, I was out of shape and stressed to the max when I first toyed with the idea of starting my own cleaning business.

A few years earlier my sister had started her own cleaning business. After working at cleaning homes with another lady, she decided to leave her full time care-aide job and pursue her goal of being her own boss. It didn't take her long once the money started rolling in.

When I saw the stash of cash and cheques she had earned from her weekly efforts I was convinced. I knew I had to pursue my dream of owning my own business. With guidance from my sister I started my own cleaning business and have never looked back. I'm 99 percent sure you won't either! I clean 25 to 30 hours a week and I love being my own boss!

Let's get you started today. Work your own hours and be your own boss in five easy steps!
