Grace was once very happy, but that seems so far away now. Instead, all she feels is loneliness and rejection from the world around her. The rejection intensifies after she falls in love with a married man who wants nothing more from her than to take advantage of her desperate sexual advances. Otilie, an introverted, psychic elderly lady who lives next door watches the whole affair unfolding from her bedroom window. She has received information from the spirits that something terrible is about to happen and she must stop it before it is too late.

A tale of faith, of understanding that there is always something deeper going on in our lives and that just a few words can change our whole lives for the better.
