At age 6 we discovered that I had been exposed to heavy metals from my environment including tooth fillings. I became very sick, and almost died. It got worse and worse as the years went by. A part of my brain was damaged, the cerebellum. It left me tone deaf & my walking was affected among other things. I went through some really tough times, and spent a lot of days sick in bed. It is by my faith in a loving God and the love and care of my family that gave me the strength to overcome. Now, 29 years later, I am going strong.
