Elvia Vive...: La Lucha Continua, La historia de Elvia Alvarado (Spanish Edition) Elvia Alvarado Spanish edition of Don't be Afraid, Gringo!

Con sencillez y sentir de pueblo, Elvia Alvarado nos muestra la Honduras de los años setenta y ochenta: la lucha por la tierra, las organizaciones campesinas, la institucionalidad, la influencia de los Estados Unidos, las relaciones de poder, el subdesarrollo.

Además, a través de su vida íntima y de sus relaciones con la gente, nos expone con claridad patrones culturales que, a pesar del paso del tiempo, continúan marcando la vida familiar, la vida de las mujeres; arraigados patrones culturales que constituyen un lastre para superar los distintos rostros de la pobreza. Sin rebuscar palabras, sin esconder las que le han servido para expresarse siempre, Elvia Alvarado nos cuenta su lucha por la organización y la educación como vías para superar las injusticias y promover cambios sociales.

Hoy más que nunca su trabajo y el de todas las personas que han alimentado y acompañado su caminar, deben inspirarnos para que mujeres y hombres nos juntemos y nos esforcemos para mejorar la vida y luchar por una Honduras mejor.
