Sometimes the only way to do your job—and discover love—is to trust your instincts. D'Marcus 'Snap' Jefferson is a DEA agent who has worked hard to keep drugs from hitting the streets of Houston. So when Kenneth Santos walks in, claiming to have information about an upcoming drug shipment, Snap must make the choice whether to trust the stranger or not. Kenneth Santos is a recovering addict and ex-con trying to clean up his act. Some mysterious informant has chosen him to act as the go-between with Agent Jefferson. It's a precarious line Ken must walk because his life could be in danger if the cartels discover he's working with Snap and the DEA. Neither man expects to fall in love while playing such a dangerous game. Yet Snap always trusts his gut and it's telling him that loving Ken could be the best decision he's ever made.
