The Highwaymen: An Adventurous Love Story Alex Ironrod

In this erotic novel of bawdy eighteenth century England, and later America, Alex Ironrod presents himself as a brilliant storyteller of male sensuality. Central to the tale is Captain Jamey Todhunter- handsome, muscular, and not afraid to take exactly what he wants. As a 'Gentleman of the Highway', Todhunter deprives his victims of their material goods at knife or gunpoint. Utilizing his flesh sword, Todhunter also takes what he wants, planting his man seed in the thirsty throats and tight bums of naked, vulnerable young men. Their unwillingness is tempered by the Leather riding crops, dildos and bondage rope employed by the sadistic highwayman. On one such highway robbery, the victims include the young Sir Michael Taplow. As he attempts to redeem his sister's property, Taplow is caught off guard, but instantly aroused, by a tongued kiss from the highwayman. The highwayman's thigh-high black boots and Leather breeches awaken latent desires in the young man. A warmness in his crotch leads the young nobleman to submit sexually to the man who will eventually become his Master as Michael is enslaved both in mind and body. To escape imprisonment, Todhunter and Taplow hastily embark on a journey to escape the past, settling in the bustling city of Boston. As Todhunter tires of the quieter life in Boston, however, he seeks further adventures with Rogers' Rangers and a move to the unsettled frontier, encountering the hostilities of Native Americans. Through it all, Michael stands beside him as his lover and partner. As you read this, you cannot help but place yourself in the story- whether as the powerful Todhunter or as the submissive Michael. Prepare to read this with one hand firmly clenched on your own manrod. Love and lust, passion and adoration, sadism and masochism, men who are real men taking what they desire. Stand and deliver... or else suffer the consequences. G.W. Leatherman Parks - Author of "LEATHERDADDY" and "A HARVEST OF G.O.L.D"
