Rick was fresh out of lock up and looking for a job. No one would hire the ex-con though, so he had to go back to his old ways. Getting a gig with a local biker gang seemed to be a temporary fix, but everything changes when he meets their leader.

He is feeling things that he has to keep inside, knowing that nothing good would come of someone finding out his secret. What Rick doesn't know though, is Dante is looking at him with the same look.

Rick comes to Dante's rescue more than once, saving him money and then saving his life as other dealers want to cut him out. Dante tries to reward the man, but Rick doesn't want what he offers. Rick wants something more personal from Dante, but he is afraid to ask for it.

Will the two be able to finally show their true feelings or is the world just against their union?
