But her lips were softer and yet her suction just a little stronger. She was only as delicate as she needed to be...but maybe a little too eager to make me feel it, whereas Dale was afraid to be rough. Loretta put her hands on my tummy and rubbed me gently, still necking me with her warm lips.

I began breathing harder and trembling. I was too shy to touch her...but craved for her hands to touch me. She slowly put her hands under my shirt and tickled my sides with her soft touch. She necked me furiously, a little harder, a little rougher with each passing second. Before long she was pulling down my neckline and kissing my chest, just grazing the fleshy part of my breasts.

“What are you...” I could barely mumble as she slowly pulled my shirt up, over my naval and then over my chest. Oh God, I thought, shocked at how far I was letting this go on. But damned if I could tell her to stop. My body was screaming for her.
